FAQ

1. What is the “3% Living Benefit” in Daiichi Life Pro?

- Under Daiichi Life Pro, the policyholder receives 3% of the Sum Insured once every 3 years and the policy must be in force.
- The 3% benefit is conditional on the policy being active and premiums being up to date.

2. Can I add or upgrade coverage after the policy starts?

- You may change Sum Insured and/ or add optional riders such as Daiichi Guard or Daiichi CI Plus (covering 8 critical illnesses) at policy inception or in the Policy Anniversary, subject to underwriting approval.
- Changing the Sum Insured or upgrading benefits mid-term may require new underwriting and approval.
- Any change may affect premium, coverage, waiting periods, or benefits.

3. What is the “Free-look period”?

You have 21 days from the Policy Issuance Date to review your policy.

If you are not satisfied, you may cancel the policy within this period and receive a full refund of premiums paid, less any medical examination fees, provided no claim has been made.

4. What is the procedure for policy reinstatement (after lapse)?

- You may be allowed to reinstate a lapsed policy within 2 years after the lapse date, subject to paying overdue premiums plus any interest.
- You must provide complete and truthful information in the Reinstatement Request Form, Health Statement, and other documents as required by Daiichi Life.
- If the reinstatement is approved, the effective date of the reinstatement shall be from the date shown on the reinstatement letter approved by Daiichi Life.

5. Are premiums eligible for tax benefits?

Yes. Premiums paid under Daiichi Life Pro are deductible for personal income tax purposes, subject to Myanmar Tax Law.

6. Can I take a policy loan?

Yes. You may take a policy loan of up to 90% of the Surrender Value at 15% annual compound interest, with a small admin fees (MMK 1,000). If you passes away before loan repayment, the outstanding loan and interest will be deducted from the benefit.

7. What is the Surrender Value?

After paying at least 3 full years of premiums, your policy acquires a Surrender Value. You may surrender the policy at any time by submitting a written request and the original policy document. The payable amount will be the Surrender Value less any outstanding loan or debt.

8. What happens if I stop paying premiums but do not want to surrender the policy?

You may convert your policy to a Reduced Paid-Up Policy.

The new Sum Insured = Original Sum Insured × (Number of years premiums paid ÷ Total premium payment term)

The reduced Sum Insured will be paid at maturity.

9. How do I submit a claim?

You may submit a claim by contacting your Financial Advisor/ Planner, or Customer Service: +95 9 880 443 003.

Our team will guide you through the claim process and required documentation.

10. How soon must a claim be submitted?

Claims should be submitted within 30 days of the event.

11. What if the Life Insured plans to live outside Myanmar?

If the Life Insured intends to reside outside Myanmar for more than 3 consecutive months, Daiichi Life must be notified in writing within 30 days.

Based on a risk assessment, Daiichi Life may continue, adjust, or cancel the policy, subject to policy terms and conditions.
